The Department of Chemistry requires a minimum total TOEFL score of 570 (230 computer score; 89 iBT). Students whose native language is not English and who have not received their undergraduate degree from a university in a country where English is the only official language must request that an official TOEFL score be sent to Iowa State University. The GRE, TOEFL and TSE testing officials send the official scores to the Admissions Office of whichever institution you designate; even if you have instructed them to send the scores directly to the Department of Chemistry. Please send a photocopy of your results to the Department of Chemistry directly.
